	CLASSIFICATION_	The state of the s		25)
OUNTE	RY Fast Germany	REPORT	NO.	23/
PIC_	Military Information for	om Cottime	A contract of the contract of the trace of the	619076
	and the same of th	and the same of th	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Manage to the second
/ALUAT	TIONP	LAGE OBTAINED
ATE OF	CONTENT_			25X1
ATE OF	BTAINED	DATE PREPARED	29 March J	954
FERE	NCES
GES_	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. &	TVDE'S		. 16 18 12.
	To the little state of the state			BOTTON OF THE PARTY OF A CONTROL OF THE PARTY OF THE PART
EMARK	3
		and the second s	non-majoran an ann an an an	and the second s
	The second secon	S.S. I		the development of the second second second second
Market and the con-	I nis is unev	ALUATED Information
		Part and the start that the start that the start the start the start that the start that the start the start the start that the start th	Handride Million Mills (1965 19) Santas (1961 1966 1966 1966 1966 1966 1966 196	ikke 1 M I (n. 1600 mm) merusuk menerusuk serungka selat pen nak telebu sebena sebena seben a bada pada menerusuk M
J.,	1,800 to 2,000 troops wearing artillery and tank insignia; and 20 February, an undetermi 2 T-34/85 tanks and up to 160 drilled in the barracks yard.	g red-bordered black epaulet and, a few, black-bordered and number of troops repeat troops received field trai	s, including crimson epau edly receive ning, while	some with lets, Between 13 d instruction on about 300 troops
1. 2.	On 20 February 1954, the Sach 1,800 to 2,000 troops wearing artillery and tank insignia; and 20 February, an undetermi 2 T-34/85 tanks and up to 160 drilled in the barracks yard.	red-bordered black epaulet and, a few, black-bordered and number of troops repeat troops received field trained and trained and trained are seen as the seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a	s, including crimson epau edly receive ming, while upled by about with artiwo JS-3 tank	ut 1,800 to 2,000 llery and tank s and 6 T-34/85 cupled as as in the
, [On 20 February 1954, the Sach 1,800 to 2,000 troops wearing artillery and tank insignia; and 20 February, an undetermi 2 T-34/85 tanks and up to 160 drilled in the barracks yard. On 20 February, the Hermann I troops wearing red-bordered binsignia; and, a few, black-bitanks previously by an 37-mm AA gum	red-bordered black epaulet and, a few, black-bordered and number of troops repeat troops received field trained and trained and trained are seen as the seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a seen as a seen as a seen are seen as a	s, including crimson epau edly receive ming, while upled by about with artiwo JS-3 tank	acme with lets, Between 13 d instruction on about 300 troops ut 1,800 to 2,000 llery and tank s and 6 T-34/85
,	On 20 February 1954, the Sach 1,800 to 2,000 troops wearing artillery and tank insignia; and 20 February, an undetermi 2 T-34/85 tanks and up to 160 drilled in the barracks yard. On 20 February, the Hermann I troops wearing red-bordered binsignia; and, a few, black-bitanks previously by an 37-mm AA gum	cens Kaserne (3083) was occolack epaulets, including soccolack epaulets, including soccolack epaulets, including soccordered crimson epaulets. The AAA emplaced field training was conducted training was conducted to quarter officers	s, including crimson epau edly receive ning, while upled by about with artiwo JS-3 tank ement was octed similar for the town femilias.	ecme with lets, Between 13 d instruction on about 300 troops ut 1,800 to 2,000 llery and tank s and 6 T-34/85 cupled as as in the tellation n komendatura, as the Soviet
2 u 3 u	On 20 February 1954, the Sach 1,800 to 2,000 troops wearing artillery and tank insignia; and 20 February, an undetermi 2 T-34/85 tanks and up to 160 drilled in the barracks yard. On 20 February, the Hermann I troops wearing red-bordered binsignia; and, a few. black-bitanks previously by an 37-mm AA gun Sachsendorf Kaserne.	cens Kaserne (3083) was occupated training was conducted to requisition additional contact epaulets with artillery area. The guns, which previsited and sevent the guns, which previsited and sevent training was conducted to requisition additional contact the guns, which previsitions, which we will be previsited to the previsitions of the previsitions which was a previsited to the previsitions of the previsitions which was a prev	s, including crimson epau edly receive ning, while upled by about wo JS-3 tank ement was octed similar for the town families, civilian occided by about y insignie.	ecme with lets, Between 13 d instruction on about 300 troops ut 1,800 to 2,000 llery and tank s and 6 T-34/85 cupied as 25 as in the tellation n komendatura, as the Soviet upied buildings, 250 to 300 Little training en observed in the
2 u 3a	On 20 February 1954, the Sach 1,800 to 2,000 troops wearing artillery and tank insignia; and 20 February, an undetermi 2 T-34/85 tanks and up to 160 drilled in the barracks yard. On 20 February, the Hermann I troops wearing red-bordered binsignia; and, a few. black-bitanks previously by an 37-mm AA gun Sachsendorf Kaserne. adjoining Hermann Loens Kaser The buildings allegedly were Army allegedly did not intend On 20 February, the Alvensleb troops wearing red-bordered bwas observed in the barracks.	cens Kaserne (3083) was occupated the distribution of the distribu	s, including crimson epau edly receive ning, while upied by about wo JS-3 tank ement was octed similar for the town families, civilian occided by about y insignia, busly had be not with article of the course of the town out of the course of	acome with lets, Between 13 d instruction on about 300 troops ut 1,800 to 2,000 llery and tank s and 6 T-34/85 cupied as as in the tallation n komendatura, as the Soviet upied buildings, 250 to 300 Little training en observed in the 1,200 to 1,400 llery and tank is epaulets, Four

On 7 February, the Hermann Loens Kaserne was occupied by roops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia, and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-Japuary, the tanks received a new coat of paint	On 7 February, the Hermann Loens Kaserne was occupied by roops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia, and black-bordered crimson epaulets, frier to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-nm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint ration. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint rations are painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the harmacks are seen through	On 7 February, the Hermann Loens Kaserne was occupied by roops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia, and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation, Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia, practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	On 7 February, the Hermann Loens Kaserne was occupied by 'roops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia, and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Frior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint	crower !
crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/55 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-Japuary, the tanks received a new coat of paint	crimson epaulets, Frier to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frier to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-nm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint raining work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the harmacks are received to the sheds.	crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia, and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint Still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the hormerly are seen through	SECRET/
crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/55 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-Japuary, the tanks received a new coat of paint	crimson epaulets, Frier to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frier to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-nm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint raining work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the harmacks are received to the sheds.	crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia, and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint Still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the hormerly are seen through crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and to 4 T-34/55 tanks, area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-Jamuary, the tanks received a new coat of paint	crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets. Prior to 7 February. 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area. An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks
crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Prior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-Japuary, the tanks received a new coat of paint	crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined member of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint painting work was still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks	crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and black-bordered crimson epaulets, Frior to 7 February, 2 JS-2 tanks and 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, were seen in the barracks area, An undetermined number of troops daily received basic training, engaged in the construction of trench positions and received instruction on tanks, including aiming practice. Two presumably 37-mm AA guns were seen in the southeast section of the installation. Beginning about mid-January, the tanks received a new coat of paint still under way on 7 February. On 7 February, the Sachsendorf Kaserne was occupied by troops wearing redbordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the harmacks
	Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks are received by	Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the barracks are received by	Prior to 7 February, individual JS-2 tanks were repeatedly observed at practice runs and two and three-axle armored scout cars were seen through the open doors of the sheds. Troops seen in the harmonic armored scout cars were seen through	crimson epaulets, Frier to 7 Feb 3 to 4 T-34/85 tanks, area, An undetermined number of engaged in the construction of tanks, including aiming practice the southeast section of the instanks received a new coat of mai	stly with tank insignia, arbruary, 2 JS-2 tanks were seen troops daily received basistench positions and receive. Two presumably 37-nm AA stallation, Beriming about stallation, Beriming about	ad black-bordered and in the barracks to training, yed instruction on guns were seen in a mid-January, the

SECRET!